MEDELLÍN YOUR HOST

Medellín, surrounded by mountains, with privileged spring weather all year round and the great kindness of its people, makes it a city internationally recognized by its transformation and social innovation.

It has grown to be a business center in the region, and an event destination with high quality standards.

WHY MEDELLÍN?

✓ Perfect weather and exuberant nature: With a temperature between 20 y 27 °C all year round, works perfectly for any event at any time.

✓ Modern infrastructure and quality services: Beautiful, organized and clean city that surprises its visitors.

✓ City of events: great experience in hosting national and international events.

✓ Big support from the local government and several stakeholders: The mayor's office is committed to support all international events that bring development to the different projects in the city, along with the Governor's office and several companies within the touristic chain of the city and region.

✓ Great potential for growth: Medellín increased 24% its international visitors in 2016, 6 times more than the world average, and along with the visitors, the infrastructure has to grow as well, with a lot of ongoing projects that may be of interest for the Routes attendees.

AIR CONECTIVITY

Medellín has two airports: José María Córdoba (MDE) and Enrique Olaya Airport (EOH), the first one 45 minutes outside the city and the second one in the city but only handling national, commercial and charter and private flights. MDE Airport is the main one, and has all international connections to/from Medellín. EOH is an important port of connectivity for national flights and cargo.
